

December 28, 2021

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Humana Capital Partners make second annual donation to the Boys and Girls Club of Benton County

ESG Investment firm founded by local high school students supports local non-profit organization committed to helping young children reach their full potential as productive members of society

Rogers, Arkansas — December 28, 2021 — Today, Humana Capital Partners (HCP), an ESG investment firm, announced their second annual donation to the Boys and Girls Club of Benton County. Our goal at Humana Capital Partners is to inspire others to help those in need. That being said the Boys and Girls Club inspired us to donate to them with their mission being to help young children and inspire them to be productive members of society. “We had an excellent year with returns above average, and we are excited to continue to support our first non-profit recipient” said Max Kublanov, Partner at HCP.

###

About Humana Capital Partners

Founded in 2018 by Haas Hall eighth grade scholars and twin brothers, Zack and Max Kublanov the firm aims to invest in public companies with a strong ESG track record and donate 80% of profits each year to worthy nonprofits in Northwest Arkansas. Their initial investments were made in 2019 and they began donating in 2020. To learn more, please visit www.humanacapitalpartners.com

About the Boys and Girls Club

For more than 29 years, Boys & Girls Club of Benton County (www.bgcbentoncounty.org) has enabled young people in need to achieve great futures as productive, caring, responsible citizens. Today, they serve over 3,000 young people throughout Northwest Arkansas through club membership, sports and community outreach. Clubs are located in Bentonville, Rogers, Bella Vista and Pea Ridge. They provide a safe place, caring adult mentors, fun, friendship, and high-impact youth development programs on a daily basis during non-school hours. Club programs promote academic success, good character and citizenship, and healthy lifestyles. In a Harris Survey of national BGCA alumni, 54 percent said that the Club saved their lives.

For more information, press only:

Zack Kublanov, Partner, Humana Capital Partners

zack@humanacapitalpartners.com

For more information About Canopy NWA:

<https://www.canopynwa.org/>